

Policy Lines Of La Torre Face Change

A Cappella Choir Will Sing Over National Network On May 4

Make-up and processing of La Torre, San Jose State college yearbook, under new methods and conditions were under discussion by Charles Pinkham, La Torre editor-in-chief, and Dwight Bentel, college publications director, at the first spring quarter meeting of the college student council held yesterday in the council rooms.

LENGTHY MEETING

In one of the longest meetings of the year, Pinkham and Bentel presented to the council their findings and reports of different methods of processing and printing yearbooks, and the feasibility of departing from old methods of yearbook planning and production.

Because of the importance of selecting the best in putting out La Torre, the council, headed by Ronald Linn, student body president, decided to allow more time to discuss the matter. Student council action on any phase of the matter is deferred until the next meeting of the council, specially scheduled for next Tuesday morning at 7:15.

RETAIN SIMONI

The council unanimously moved to retain Dario Simoni as a bona fide member of the student council, following the receipt of a letter from Simoni regarding his legal standing and advisability of holding a student-officer position.

Simoni's letter read in part as follows: "I am now a graduate student of the college and have a teaching position in one of the high schools. I have every desire to help the school, but because of my Literati Club Meet Features Oats For Pegasus. Some Fun!

Baseball games and other sporting events may be called off on account of rain but—

What's a little precipitation to the literati? Less than nothing.

Mingling frankfurters with mental frankincense and a dash of mustard and poetry, Pegasus members and their friends held one of their most successful weinie roast meetings of the year Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Sybil Hanchett in Saratoga.

Old Jupe Pluvius gave the world the works. It rained. It rained like everything.

But you can't daunt a Pegasusan. Unable to have their meeting under the open sky, they gathered in Mrs. Hanchett's kitchen, and using the kitchen range for a bonfire, roasted their weinies with gusto.

During the meeting three stories, several poems, and a one-act play were read and discussed, dancing, ping-pong, and conversation further enlivened the evening.

Officers for the coming quarter were elected. They are: President, Ethel Lee Ruhlen; vice-president, Edwin Wettterstrom; secretary-treasurer, Barton Wood.

After indulging in an extra round of ice-cream, the evening was concluded.

Those present were Mrs. Sybil Hanchett, Hilda Hanchett, Beryl Hoskin, Rose Catherine Gunn, Diane Wood, Ethel Lee Ruhlen, Stafford Narvaez, Carl W. Palmer, Bob Wright, Edwin Wettterstrom, Bob Darneal, Peter Mingrone, and Barton Wood.

SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE SINCE 1862 SPARTAN DAILY

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 1935

Number 111

Daily Correspondent Flees From Nigeria; Heads For San Jose

LAGOS, NIGERIA. (British West Africa) April 10 (M.P.) An aviator claiming to be Mr. Yliad Natraps, foreign correspondent for the Spartan Daily, San Jose State college student publication, landed here at 2:53 p.m. (E.T.) today in a slightly befuddled condition.

That he was confused was apparent to the spectators witnessing his landing, to whom he addressed numerous irrelevant questions.

"Did you know that I'm to be an actor in the Spardi Revelries?" he asked the crowd. Judging the question to be a purely rhetorical one, no one answered. He continued his interrogation of the crowd until peace officers interfered.

At the gaol he was released on his own recognizance after his papers had been examined. He was followed to where his plane had landed but, before he could be apprehended, he took off his plane, the "Minnie O". It is believed that his destination is San Jose, California, U.S.A., and police there have been warned.

(Editor's note: An attempt is still being made to contact Mr. Yliad Natraps for a day by day account of his voyage home.)

'Si' Simoni In Charge Of P.E. Department of Technical High School

Dario "Si" Simoni, former State football captain and Physical Education major, is now in complete charge of the Physical Education department of the San Jose Technical high school.

Simoni graduated last quarter, and immediately took over the school where he had done his student teaching. His duties consist of conducting physical activity classes and coaching various sports.

The basketball team won 13 out of 26 games played, and the baseball team has played six games so far and won all of them, Simoni stated.

"I have been offered a better position by the Technical high school for next fall," Simoni said, "and I hope to build up more activities for the 280 boys in the Physical Education department in spite of the fact that we do not have adequate facilities on the grounds, and must travel to various parts of the city for practice."

Guy George to Speak To Sequoia High Girls

Speaking on the essential qualities for success necessary for secretaryship, Mr. Guy G. George of the Commerce Department, will address a meeting of the Girls' League of Sequoia High School at Redwood City on Friday. He will deal with the subject under the title "Stenography as an Occupation for Girls."

Junior College Graduates Decide Not To Participate In Senior Commencement

Parade Entries May Be Made Tomorrow

All campus organizations are invited to send representatives to a meeting Friday noon in room 53 to present and discuss further arrangements for the Spardi Gras parade. Plans for the parade have been under way for several weeks, but organizations which heretofore have not participated may still send representatives.

Pop-eye, the Dionne Quints, and a novelty fire engine are representative of the work being done for the parade, which the committee is already heralding as one of the grandest of the Grand Parades in the history of Spardi Gras.

The parade will be one of the outstanding activities of Spardi Gras day to be held on April 26. The parade will go downtown and then pass in revue before grandstands erected on the San Carlos turf, where the stunts and floats will be judged.

Russel Azzara heads the parade committee, with Kay McCarthy and Robert Doerr assisting.

French Drama To Be Presented Tonight

Napoleon and Empress Marie-Louise are holding court tonight and reliving the days of the Great French Empire as Iota Delta Phi presents "Madame Sans-Gene" in the Little Theater at 8:30 o'clock.

Historical characters and authentic incidents make this Sardou drama to be presented in French dialogue, a true picture of life in the late 18th and early 19th centuries.

The audience is promised a thoroughly understandable and entertaining production even to those who do not understand the French language.

Mr. Lawrence Mendenhall of the Speech department who is doing the general stage directing says that it is a colorful and beautiful production to see and adds that it is being very well acted although he cannot understand French. Mr. Mendenhall particularly commends the acting of the two faculty members, Dr. Boris Lubowski and Dr. L. C. Newby, and that of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien de Cauniere who are assisting in the major parts.

Spardi Gras Plans To Be Made By A.W.S.

Further plans for the A.W.S. entry in the Spardi Gras grand parade will be made at the Council meeting this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the A.W.S. room in the Co-op building.

Two-Year Class Votes Down Cap and Gown Rites, 173 to 20

Failure of junior college graduates and the president's committee to agree on one item—that of caps and gowns—resulted in the decision that two-year graduates will not participate in the baccalaureate and commencement exercises this June, Harrison F. Heath, technical adviser, announced today.

NO J. C. COMMENCEMENT

Voting last quarter 204 to 33 in favor of cap and gown participation, the technical group, when the committee's ruling that junior college graduates might participate, but not in caps and gowns, was placed before them, joined with the academic students in turning thumbs down on the proposal by a vote of 173 to 20.

Mr. Heath has consequently come to the conclusion that the academic junior college students are not interested in graduation exercises, and the technical junior college students are not interested either, unless the participation would be with cap and gown.

EXPENSE TOO HIGH

He believes that the added expense of taking part in the exercises caused many students to vote against it.

Technical diplomas will be given out by Mr. Heath in the Personnel office in June. No special time is set for the presentation, but graduates may call individually or collectively for their diplomas.

"However, this idea of junior college participation in the graduation exercises is not yet a dead issue," he said. "The president and other administrative officers understand that junior college graduation deserves some sort of public recognition and ceremony."

Mr. Heath stated that formulated students opinion would carry weight in working out a satisfactory plan.

Junior High Majors To Hear Anne G. Frazer At Meet Next Tuesday

Coming as one of the highlights of programs that have been planned for the year, Miss Anne G. Frazer, principal of Woodrow Wilson Junior High School in Oakland, will speak at the meeting of Junior High Majors in Room 1 of the Homemaking Building next Tuesday evening, at 7:30. All upper and lower Junior High Majors are urged by the education department to be present at this meeting.

The committees in charge of incidental entertainment and refreshments are planning unusual features for the meeting.

In the afternoon, from 12:30 till 2 o'clock, two discussion groups will be conducted by faculty members. Dr. J. C. DeVoss, head of the Psychology department, will conduct a panel discussion on the topic "What We Can Do To Eliminate War". The discussion which will be held in room 117 of the Speech Wing, will have as participants: Dr. Frederick Graham of the Social Science department and Dr. J.C. Elder of the Natural Science department and two student representatives, Harold Caldwell and Wesley Gordon.

CLUB SPONSORSHIP

Organizations sponsoring the assembly are the Y.W.C.A. and the Y.M.C.A., the Federation of Reconciliation, Spartan Senate, A.W.S., Trinity students, Japanese Club and Filipino Club and the Student Council.

Davina's Ambassadors To Furnish Music For First DTO "Jail Hop"

Inviting San Jose State students to spend "a night in the brig", members of Delta Theta Omega fraternity will hold their first "jail dance" Saturday night in the newly remodeled Alum Rock pavilion, seven miles from San Jose at nine o'clock.

With Al Davina and his Royal Ambassadors "rigged out" in costume befitting the occasion, the committee in charge has planned many novel features, according to Irvan Beaulieu, general chairman.

The dance, which is to be informal, is to have as co-features with the orchestra and its novelty numbers, clever decorations and refreshments. A large crowd of students is expected to attend, according to Beaulieu. Because of its date, members of the social organization who are selling bids for $1.00 apiece, are expecting the novel affair to be successful for its originality as well as being the opening social event of the quarter.

"HELP WANTED---MALE" .. By Michael Angelo

Demi-Tasse

By CHARLES LEONG

In one of his many classes which Mr. Demi attends with Mr. Tasse, the instructor, in the course of a lecture, changes his spectacles alternately many times during the discussion.

Mr. Demi, who is generally accepted as the dumber of the two, claims that the spectacles should change professors during the second-ticks of a pedagogical parley.

Or maybe he isn't so dumb after all.

It was one of those pushed-in by-the-tornado sort of places, just a mite of a cubby-hole. With room for probably tea for two—only they don't serve tea. Nor serve anything else for just two either. Four burly truck drivers, one fat flat foot, and three piano-movers usually jam their assorted contributions to humanity in this baby fly-trough.

And order ham and . . . or hamboiger, with a generous washing of something akin to fourth-drip java. Shortly after the lunch hour the other day, one of Demi's friends (he thinks, anyway) wends his way into this palace of gastronomical torture, and finds a sign: "OUT TO LUNCH."

Goes to show that what's one man's poison is something to be afraid of.

Sometimes things that are on the air do get off the air and the grapevine route produced this one:

A "good night, children" man, otherwise known as a radio big brother . . . Tom, Dick, or Harry, or something, got slightly tangled up on his off-the-air signals, and with the mike still alive, muttered to himself, "Thank God, this is all for this afternoon, you little blankety-blanks . . ."

Wonder if the Spardi Gras committee will have a consolation prize for the whiskerino contest? Or a contest to see who could grow the least chin-bush for the allotted period? We know a guy who has three hairs on one side and four on the other. Says he's already waiting for the prize.

Stray strollers . . . wonder how many Greeks (not restaurant-owners) even know what or how the alphabets or words of their shiny fraternity pin means? . . . funny how when one stray lawn path is fenced up, another one starts to put a bald streak on the green . . . you know, the idea of having SYMPHONIES UNDER STARS in the quad is a pretty swewwegant idea, we think . . . and pipe-cleaners make swell book-marks, if one does read.

State FERA Workers Average $3,919.35 A Month In School Year

State college students have received an average of $3,919.35 per month for FERA work during the autumn and winter quarters, according to figures obtained from Mrs. Luella Stevenson, secretary to President T. W. MacQuarrie.

Starting with 257 students receiving checks amounting to $1778 in September of last year, the payroll has advanced to include 342 students who received $4410.35 for the month of March. Aid from this source is at present enabling almost 350 men and women students to continue their education at San Jose State.

"I Think" . . .

(Editors' note: this is one of a series of interviews with faculty members and students selected at random on subjects of local interest.) The question for today was: DO YOU THINK THAT STUDENTS SHOULD SUPPORT THE PEACE PROGRAM?

Dean Goddard: I think that the students should stand back of the peace program, and that all students show their stand by attending, and taking part in the discussion.

Neill Thomas: I think that all cooperation between the students and the President in the coming peace program should be had, and that the students should make it one in which they show their spirit and loyalty.

Do You . . .

(This is one of a series of articles to appear from time to time. In these columns, faculty members will point out prevailing practices of students which meet with their disapproval.)

San Jose State college is fortunate in securing the best of artists, musical groups, and lecturers to appear here, points out Mr. Dwight Bentel, publications and publicity director of the college, but student response to these artistic and cultural performances is not enthusiastic.

"The townspeople comprise the greater part of the audience support to such world re-nowned artists as the Cossacks, Hoffman, and Mischa Elman," declares Bentel, "and greater response from the students to these performances would undoubtedly give more mutually cultural benefits."

at the home of Bettie Jeanne Keller. Following the ceremony the sorority enjoyed a formal buffet supper. Miss Keller's home was decorated with spring blossoms. Mrs. Sarah Dowdle, Mrs. Rodgers Lee Moore, Miss Lillian Billington, faculty members and several alumnae members attended the affair.

A dinner dance, to be held early in the quarter, will honor the new Kappas.

Cinder Men Tangle With Frisco State

AL COX

From the looks of the weather this last week Old Man Weather has decided to give Coach Bill Hubbard's track squad a break for the San Francisco State meet that is scheduled for Saturday at Spartan Field. From the reports gathered about the big city teachers, they will bring a fairly good squad to battle the Spartans. Their recent meet with Chico State ended with the Gators on the short end of the score. The results of this meet and the outcome of the meet Saturday will afford a good comparison of the Spartans' meet against Chico which is due in a few weeks.

SPRINTS

The visiting sprinters have shown themselves to be only fair. Their best time being around 10.2 which matches quite evenly with the Spartan sprinters' best times. Robinson, Hanley and True have as yet not broken 10 flat, so with these times to base judgment, the Gators should be anybody's race. However, with Stockdale in the longer dash, the first points should go to the Spartans.

HARPER RUNS

The mile run should be the race to watch. With Glenn Harper of the Spartans running better every day which is around 4.39, and the San Francisco State four lap men running in times of around 4.36, the outcome of this race is almost impossible to predict. Harper's improvement of late should make the difference between the two times to make an even race.

HURDLES

According to comparative times Lucian Morrison of the San Francisco squad should take the high hurdles. Both Cammack and Murphy of the locals have not as yet time better than 15.4 which was Morrison's time for this event in the Chico meet. However the Spartan hurdlers are good competitive runners, and when the race calls for extra speed the Hubbardites are generally on hand. In the low barrier race, Cammack should win without any trouble. This boy has a great deal of trouble getting started, but when he hits his stride the opposition generally has the misfortune of watching him run. With more work on his starts, thereby getting away with the rest of the field, Cammack should be a strong threat in the conference meeting.

140 FEET

Coach Hubbard's star discus thrower, Jordan McPhetres, will have to aim at the 140 foot mark this Saturday to win the platter. Owen Jones of the visitors has a 140 foot heave to his credit so far this season, so McPhetres will have to get off a long one to capture first point honors in the coming meet.

IRON MAN

The San Francisco State team has among its members an iron man who enters many events. His list of accomplishments include high jumping five feet, eleven inches, broad jumping 21 feet 6 inches, and tossing the javelin out around 170 feet. This Gator star, Homer Stone, will find things pleasant in the high jump, but the other two events the Spartans will give him battle for the winning points. Cunningham should hit his stride about this meet and send the spear about over the 200 foot mark.

Intramural Eligibility Rules Are Announced

By DICK EDMONDS

With five representative sports included on the calendar, inter-class athletic competition will reach its climax this quarter, according to the statement of Coach Charles Walker, intra-mural head.

Baseball, tennis, track, golf and volleyball enthusiasts will each get the opportunity for exercise this quarter.

Coach Walker issued the following eligibility rules for the season:

Baseball: Anyone not a member of the varsity baseball squad may take part. Each class will have one or more teams.

Tennis: There will be three divisions for competition, singles, doubles and mixed doubles. Anyone not a member of the varsity squad is eligible to compete.

Golf: No restrictions.

Volley ball: No restrictions.

Track: Anyone, not a member of the varsity or freshman squads, may take part.

Coach Walker announced that sign-up lists will be posted in the men's gym very soon.

Baseball Nine Resumes Diamond Warfare In Gator Game Saturday

San Jose State's athletic day, as it were, with San Francisco State Saturday will be augmented by a baseball game between the teams of the two colleges immediately following the track meet in the morning. Both schools boast of diamond nines rating the best in the history of either institution and the result should be a slashing nine innings of high class baseball.

GATORS TOUGH

The "Gators", coached by Hal Harden, will be undoubtedly pointing for the fracas with the Spartans. Up until the first game between the Purple and Gold and the local Staters last year, the bay city boys were well on their way to a clearly victorious season. Along came the San Joseans to win the first game in an eleven inning encounter and take the second battle by a narrow margin.

LITTLE PRACTICE

The Spartans, who have been running over the opposition like pedestrians through stop signals, have not touched a ball since the game last week with the University of San Francisco and will have but two days practice before the Gator tilt Saturday. Having played some twenty-five contests and lost but three in the best of competition, the Washington Square diamonders are natural favorites but it will be far from a one-sided fray.

LINDNER OUT

Latest reports have it that the star of the baseballers, first-sacker Al Lindner, may be lost to the team for the rest of the season. What the Blacow-Blesh combine will do to offset this difficulty is questionable, although Saturday may find one of the outfield quartet moving in to handle the initial square.

WATSON STARTS

The rest of the starting lineup will find Burt Watson, southpaw ace of the Spartan pitching corps, taking up the throwing duties out on the mound. Harry Hardiman is due to take the position behind the log in receiving position for Watson's slants.

LINEUP

The remainder of the infield, Main, Luque, and Carpenter will remain intact, while the outfield four of Blethen, Bishop, Pura and Atkinson will produce the three starting gardeners.

The game is due to start at 12:30 sharp on the Spartan Field diamond immediately following the track fest on the cinder oval.

Intramural Activities

Points for tennis in the inter-mural competition will be given for participation and quality of playing.

An elimination tournament will be the means of ascertaining the victors in each of the three divisions, singles, doubles, and mixed doubles.

It is thought that the tournament will get under way next week. Those planning to sign up should do so at once as Friday is the last day that this formality will be permitted. So far only about six men have announced their willingness to participate in the singles event. One doubles team is all that has registered.

Last year the tennis tourney was won by the sophomore class with the freshmen following closely. The sophomores scored all of their points in the doubles and mixed doubles, while Frosh were practically sweeping the singles event.

All teams, but the seniors, are still in the running for the grand total honors. The sophomores are leading with a total of 1325 points to date. The juniors follow with 1166 and the Frosh are next with 888. The seniors are badly out-

Jaysee Boys Too Much for Local Team

Meeting the San Mateo matmen in the San Jose men's gym last night, the Spartan grapplers were defeated to the tune of 22½ to 15½ points.

Exhibition match:

Glover of San Jose defeated Christenson of San Mateo 3:48.

Regular matches:

118 lbs.: Roberts of San Mateo defeated Salameda of San Jose 2:28.

126 lbs.: San Mateo won on a forfeit.

135 lbs.: Bennion of San Mateo defeated Roumasset of San Jose 4:40.

145 lbs.: Binkley of San Jose and Dondiet of San Mateo wrestled a draw.

155 lbs.: Lucky of San Jose defeated Muller of San Mateo 33 seconds.

168 lbs.: Enos of San Jose defeated Hiltisch of San Mateo 4:40.

175 lbs.: Philpott of San Jose defeated Schnarz of San Mateo by decision.

Heavyweights—

Brown of San Mateo defeated Maynard of San Jose 1:40.

Referee: Joe Amori, coach of San Mateo team.

Giving the decision on the final and deciding bout to the San Mateo wrestler, referee Amori drew the prolonged boos of the crowd, who declared the decision grossly unfair.

paced, having only 378 points to their credit. This is one of the worst showings ever made by a senior class since the intra-mural system has been used here.

The battle for top honors will undoubtedly depend on the showing of the classes during this quarter. The five sports that are left on the program carry enough points for any class, even the seniors, can wind up on top.

Both financial requests were held over for discussion until the conference next week.

Councilmen present at the meeting were: Rae Dobyns, Bill Moore, Dario Simoni, Hugh Staffelbach, Evelyn Cavala, Bill Jennings, and Ronald Linn.

R. Luikkonen Chosen As First Head of New Campus Forestry Club

Reino Luikkonen, freshman, has been elected president of the Forestry club, which is comparatively new on the campus, having been organized this year. Leonard Rackstraw was chosen vice-president, Howard Taft, secretary-treasurer, and Carl McMurphy, sergeant at arms.

Plans for open air meetings around a bonfire and several smokers have already been made by the new president, as well as field trips for furthering the aim of the club, which is to provide an organization on the campus to serve those interested in the various fields of forestry.

The next meeting of the Forestry Club will be held this Tuesday at 11 o'clock in room 210 of the science building. Anyone interested in forestry is invited to come to the meetings and participate in the activities of the club, according to Luikkonen.

FLAVOR! "Camels have a great taste—rich and pleasing," says Herman J. Lamkin, linotype operator. "I've smoked them for many years. I can smoke as steadily as I want to, and Camels don't ever affect my nerves."

ENERGY! An editor gives his experience: "The enjoyable way of easing strain is smoking Camels," says Ray Baker. "Camels bring back my 'pep,' and I can tackle the next big story with renewed energy!"

SO MILD! Miss Margaret Nichols, expert woman reporter, says: "Camels are a smoother smoke. They have a mild flavor—delicate and pleasing—entirely different from any other cigarette. Camels taste better!"

HEALTHY NERVES! Pat Robinson, sports writer, says: "I've been smoking Camels ever since they were put on the market. I smoke at least two packs of Camels a day. They never interfere with my nerves."

VALUE! "Camels are made from costlier tobaccos. They're the real 'extra value' cigarette," says E. E. C. Pickwood, ace news-photographer, who often uses fast airplanes to get "front page pictures" for a great New York newspaper. "I'm loyal to Camels," Pickwood continues. "They taste so much richer and smoother—never frazzle your nerves. I have smoked Camels for years and I, too, would 'walk a mile for a Camel.'"
